

Dice Writing

Want to write an amazing story but can't think where to start? Then here's a fun way to get your creative ideas flowing!

Simply cut out the story starter below and paste it into your book, then roll the dice and get writing! Don't forget to add lots of detail and use plenty of describing words. When you need a new idea, just roll again and work that new idea into your story—easy!

	You realise that you forgot your swimming costume
	Dad catches an enormous fish
	Your brother's sandcastle is so big that people start paying to look at it
	You spot an amazing octopus in a rock pool
	An enormous storm hits, whipping up sand and drenching everyone
	The ice cream truck breaks down and gives away all the ice cream for free!

It's a beautiful day for a trip to the beach, the sun is shining and the sky is clear blue. The whole family were looking forward to the fun. I couldn't wait to swim and my brother was determined to build the biggest sandcastle the world had ever seen, he even packed a full sized shovel for the job!

It would take about half an hour to get there so we were awake early and had packed the car with everything we would need—towels, food, an umbrella and lots of beach toys. Finally, we were on our way and before long we could see the waves crashing against the sand. Grabbing all our belongings we ran down the stairs and across the sand already warming from the sun.
