

Dice Writing

Want to write an amazing story but can't think where to start? Then here's a fun way to get your creative ideas flowing!

Simply cut out the story starter below and paste it into your book, then roll the dice and get writing! Don't forget to add lots of detail and use plenty of describing words. When you need a new idea, just roll again and work that new idea into your story—easy!

	Someone accidentally shoots a canon through the floor of the ship
	The Captains parrot gets sea sick
	The ship is stranded on a mysterious island
	They find a treasure map in a bottle floating on the sea
	The ship's cook gets sick. Who will cook now?
	They are chased by a navy ship who is shooting at them

Pirate Peril

Becoming a pirate was not exactly Simon's plan, but life has a way of surprising us. When his father passed away and left his mother with no money to raise his younger brothers and sisters, Simon did the only thing he could—head straight to the docks and look for work as a deck hand on one of the big, scary pirate ships that commonly docked in their small seaside town.

It wasn't long before he found a spot with Shady Dave's crew. They were the meanest, nastiest crew around, and Simon was scared, but he knew he had to go, and besides, it might just lead him into the adventure of a lifetime. He just hoped he lived long enough to talk about it!
